SOVIET SOLDIERS OPEN FIRE IN BRITISH ZONE

German Killed, 22 Hurt
After Mass Demonstration; Crowd Heckled Russians.

BERLIN, Friday, Sept. 10 (AP)—One person was killed and 22 were injured by bullets and stones during a bloody street clash last night between Soviet soldiers and British troops, according to British police.

The clashes occurred near the historic Brandenburg gate after 200,000 Germans had demonstrated in a nearby square against the Communist drive for power over the blockaded city.

British sector police headquarters said six injured civilians, including three with gunfire wounds, were in British sector hospitals.

The deputy police chief of the Soviet sector said five of his policemen were injured, one seriously. In addition, he said, approximately 10 police suffered abrasions from hurled stones. One woman received an arm injury.

THE SOVIET-LICENSED news agency (APN) said two of the Communist policemen were wounded by gunfire. The Eastern sector deputy chief did not specify the nature of the wounds of his policemen and no eyewitness accounts of the rioting said members of the crowd exchanged gunfire with the troops and police.

The demonstration dwarfed all previous rallies in post-war Berlin. The Communist-sponsored Socialist Unity party (SED) last night called on "the workers of Berlin" to mass for a big counter-rally at noon Sunday.

Part of the home-going crowd stoned three Russian soldiers in a jeep. They tossed rocks at the massive memorial the Russian army built on the conquest of Berlin. One demonstrator climbed the memorial and tore down a Soviet flag.

Soviet troops who rushed to the scene fired their tommyguns. The Soviet-controlled police fired pistols. British sector police said the one fatality was Fritz Schuermann, 16-year-old youth.

Russian-controlled German police fired pistols on demonstrators on the Soviet side of the historic granite bridge which is the dividing line between the Russian and British sectors of Berlin. Russian military police drove a jeep through the gate into the British sector and fired tommyguns into the air until British-controlled police and soldiers persuaded the crowd to disperse.

BRITISH SECTOR police said Schuermann died from gunfire wounds in the stomach while en route to a hospital.

APN said two Communist policemen were killed.

De Gaulle Demands New French Election; Queuille Accepts Job

PARIS, Sept. 9 (AP)—An official spokesman for Gen. Charles de Gaulle called tonight for new national French elections.

This was the first time De Gaulle had intervened during a cabinet crisis.

Jacques Soustelle, secretary-general of De Gaulle's French People's Rally (RPF), made a statement to the press at a moment when:

1. The veteran radical Socialist, Henri Queuille, had accepted formally the nomination for premier of France.

2. Labor unrest flared throughout France and in the colonies.

On the outskirts of Paris, workers of the Renault automobile factory quit their jobs and began a march toward the center of the city. A large police contingent met them along the route. They attacked the police with paving stones and returned a police car. Before the group was dispersed, a dozen workers and 20 policemen were injured.

Several workers got cracked heads in an earlier battle with police near the palace of President Vincent Auriol. One was reported hospitalized.

Soustelle's statement said:

"After the past October's municipal elections (in which the De Gaulle forces won about 40 percent of the vote) Gen. De Gaulle declared it necessary to give the nation its voice as soon as possible.

"Today it is even more necessary."

A Shining Example of the 'Weaker Sex'

Summer's golden days are over in more ways than one for Thomas Mest, 32 West Fifth street. Top man all Summer long at "skin the cat" and "follow the leader" he finds it hard to believe a sister girl could beat him at anything. But Carol Binder, 234 Prospect street, shows him girls can really shine when they get back to school. Edith Nagle, their second grade teacher at the Lincoln school, unwittingly umpires the battle of the sexes.

Soviet Planes, Ships
Put on Show to Impress
Europe With Strength

BERLIN, Sept. 9 (AP)—Soviet planes prowled the skies of Northern Europe today and Soviet ships cruised in the Baltic off Denmark in the greatest show of Russian strength since the end of the war.

There was little doubt in military minds here that the Soviet activity was a carefully planned military show designed to impress Europe with Soviet armed might in view of the East-West crisis in Berlin.

The moves also were apparently designed to take some of the edge off the Anglo-American airlift to Berlin and the impressive joint British-American air maneuvers over Britain in the past week.

COUPLED WITH Anglo-American Army maneuvers at Grafenwohr, the picture reminded many of the Europe armed camp of 1938 and 1939. At Grafenwohr in the American zone of Germany, a defensive force is practicing warding off a superior "aggressor" force attacking from the east.

The usual Soviet practice is to cloak their armed forces with the greatest secrecy. Today, however, high-flying Soviet fighters criss-crossed over Berlin leaving vapor trails in the sky. Some Germans, mindful of the trails left by thousands of American bombers during the war, took it as an omen.

Another estimated 60 Russian planes appeared over the Danish island of Bornholm. They flew low over Røgnø, the island's main city. One plane circled a Danish naval vessel at a height of about 75 yards.

Soustelle's statement said:

"After the past October's municipal elections (in which the De Gaulle forces won about 40 percent of the vote) Gen. De Gaulle declared it necessary to give the nation its voice as soon as possible.

"Today it is even more necessary."

Public School Enrolment Here Above 1947 Figure

Pottstown schools went into their second day yesterday with a total registration of 3345 pupils, 37 more than the total at the same time the past year.

Although exceeding the 1947 total of 3308, the 1948 registration was two short of the 3347 recorded in 1946. It was expected, however, that this year's mark would better 1946 by the time all the pupils had reported to classes.

Registration at the schools, it was pointed out, are usually completed at the end of September when students with Summer jobs or those who are on late vacations with their parents return to Pottstown.

Yesterday, beginners in the first grade reported to school for the first time. With the exception of the St. Clair school, every elementary school showed an increase in beginners over last year. A total of 355 youngsters sat down in wide-eyed wonder.

Two Doehler Employees Extinguish Car Blaze

A fire in the wiring of a car owned by Victor Van Horn, of Hilltop road, was extinguished without calling a fire company shortly after 7 o'clock yesterday morning at Charlotte and Prospect streets.

Van Horn and a fellow-employee of the Doehler-Jarvis corporation were on their way to work when a short circuit began to burn the wiring. They ripped out the burned wires and were pushed to a nearby garage by James Bell, of Frederick, also on his way to the Doehler-Jarvis plant.

Sergeancy Ratings Shuffled Again; Vets Given Credit

Builder Jabbed on Proposal To Construct $8000 Homes

By HARRY TOLAND
(Mercury Staff Writer)

Called to "encourage rental housing units," last night's housing committee meeting primarily accomplished the discouragement of one local builder.

Gordon R. Exley 2d, head of a local building firm, attending the meeting "to get the lie of the land on the Pottstown building situation," met with repeated scoffs when he told of his own building venture.

The meeting, originally intended to be of the combined citizens' and council groups, consisted of seven persons, less than half of them members of the citizen's committee and none from council.

Exley's plan is to build several hundred single and double homes to sell for $7000 to $8000. The only snag delaying the project, he said, is incomplete financing.

He got cynical treatment from committee members and other builders present.

"You just can't build a single house for less than $10,000," said Burgess William A. Griffith.

THE YOUNG DAPPER Exley explained that he was willing to cut his profits on the project to build his reputation.

"If I can't build a good house for that figure I'm not going to do anything," he said.

He added that he could get materials cheaply when he bought in large orders. Likewise, he said, he could buy land in wholesale lots rather than small subdivisions, cutting costs there.

On a project the size of his, he said, he would also get the best labor, since top-flight labor is attracted to long-term jobs which also offer indoor work on rainy days.

Other contractors doubted that he could get materials more cheaply in bulk, claiming that after a certain lot size, most materials remain at the same price even when many lots of that size are bought.

Exley said he had had experience buying building materials when he worked as field engineer and job engineer for a large Philadelphia contracting firm and knew it could be done.

"For instance," asked Burgess Griffith, "where are you going to get toilet paper?"

"I know a company in Scranton where I can get all the toilets I want," returned Exley.

"In fact," he went on, "I could haul cinder blocks and lumber 250 miles to Pottstown and undersell them here."

THE FIRST PART of the meeting concerned a discussion of housing financing in which Harold E. Binder, chairman of the citizens' group, asserted his belief that local housing would not be financed by private capital.

Banks are cautious on loans Tomorrow Is Deadline For Voter Registration

Persons wishing to vote in the November presidential elections must register before noon tomorrow at the Montgomery County courthouse in Norristown.

The witnesses scheduled are Pottstown Chief of Police James A. Laughhead and John C. Simpson, coroner's physician who performed an autopsy on the body after Brown was slain early Saturday outside the Hotel James, Lincoln avenue and Grant street.

Statements have been taken from nearly a dozen witnesses of the fatal shooting, but these presumably will be held in reserve.

Officials investigating the case will have their eyes on the courthouse this morning, where Attorney Herbert C. Nelson promised to deliver the missing Darden, safest route to the slaying, to District Attorney E. Arnold Forrest.

A warrant has been issued charging Darden, a 20-year-old Norristown youth, with homicide. It was issued by Justice of the Peace Raymond C. Kelley, of the Second ward. Darden, if he surrenders, (Continued on Page Ten)

BRIDEGAM PUT BACK ON TOP IN POLICE CONTEST

War-time Service Records
Recognized by Commission;
Borgiet in Third Spot

By ED ROSENBERG
(Mercury Staff Writer)

Patrolman Paul W. Bridgman last night became top man among the candidates for the post of police street sergeant for the second time.

Members of the Pottstown Civil Service commission, acting upon the advice of the assistant borough solicitor, added ten points to his overall rating and to that of Motor Patrolman Thomas A. Lawler, since both men are veterans of wartime service.

Chairman Herbert S. Myers and Secretary George H. Saylor agreed with S. Leonard Miller, who declared, "We have no choice in the matter. The law must be followed."

The new overall ratings of the three leading candidates, one of whom will be chosen by council Monday night, now are:

Bridgman 88
Lawler 87
Borgiet 81

Motor Patrolman Lewis M. Borgiet, the commission pointed out, has had service in the armed forces of the United States and was discharged honorably but did not serve during wartime.

War-time service was required by the definition of a soldier given in Pennsylvania Public Law 837, May 22, 1945, which names a soldier as any person "who served in the armed forces of the United States during any war in which the United States was engaged and who has an honorable discharge from such service."

Bridgman and Lawler filled the three obligations of that definition, commission members said.

MYERS SAID last night at the close of the 40-minute session, "This is the last time we're going to meet on this question. This is our final decision and it's going to stand. From here on it's in the laps of council."

Bridgman led the list of candidates after the written examination the past Aug. 27. His score was 90, Borgiet's was 89 and Lawler's was 85.

But on Sept. 1 Saylor and Miller went over a question concerning suicide. When they found it originally had been marked wrong, they changed the ratings accordingly.

Since, when the question was corrected, Bridgman was found to have been wrong and the other two patrolmen right, his score slipped to 88, while Borgiet's rose to 91 and Lawler's to 87.

THIS WEEK Bridgman and Lawler wrote to the commission, asking that 10 points for veterans' preference be added to their scores.

They cited the State law, which says in part:

"Whenever any soldier shall successfully pass a civil service examination..."

141 More Men Added To Draft Board Rolls

One hundred forty-one men were registered for the draft in borough hall council chambers yesterday.

Nearly all the registrants so far have been veterans, said R. Ross Longaker, draft board clerk, as men born in 1927 start to sign up today, he expects the percentage of non-veterans to begin to rise.

Questionnaires continued to go out yesterday. They are being sent first to single men, married men without children and men without previous military service.

Herman Talmadge Sweeps Into Power In Georgia on 'White Supremacy' Platform

ATLANTA, Sept. 9 (AP)—Herman Talmadge returned to power in Georgia today on a "white supremacy" platform and a wave of resentment against the Federal civil rights program.

His nomination for governor in yesterday's Democratic primary was overwhelming and a special session of the legislature seemed assured to inaugurate him early in November.

Gov. M. E. Thompson, his rival since the hectic days of the "dual government" 20 months ago, conceded defeat and agreed to plans for a speedy inauguration immediately after the general election.

Talmadge's popular lead mounted from the start. Unofficial returns from 1957 out of 1763 precincts gave him 336,022 to 291,728 for Thompson, and a county unit margin of 322 to 88.

There were more than 142,000 Negroes registered to vote out of the 1,194,000 total and their ballots generally were conceded to Thompson, but it was not enough.

THOMPSON ROLLED UP a big margin in densely populated Fulton (Atlanta) county, leading Talmadge 41,733 to 25,000 there; but Fulton counted only six unit votes.

Elsewhere the traditional Talmadge rural counties fell into line and the 35-year-old heir of the "white supremacy" platform even captured some urban counties his father could never carry.

In Georgia, it takes 206 county unit votes to nominate a governor. The smallest, farming counties each have two; intermediate counties have four and the eight metropolitan counties have six. The Democratic nomination is equivalent to election.

Thompson conceded defeat this morning, lamenting, "the people give, the people take away; blessed be the name of the people."

HE THEN OFFERED to appoint Talmadge a revenue commissioner until November "in the belief that he will need this valuable experience." Asked if he would accept the post, Talmadge said "no."

Thompson agreed to a legislative session immediately after the Nov. 2, general election, if Talmadge's plan for a quick inauguration were legal. The State's attorney general said it is legal.

Three other candidates for the governorship received only scattered popular votes and no unit votes. They are Hoke O'Kelley, Hoke Willis and the Rev. Joseph A. Rabun.

A special legislative session to inaugurate him two months ahead of the usual time will be an ironic revenge for Talmadge. It was the general assembly that "elected" him governor in January, 1947, after the death of his father, Eugene.

The "election" subsequently was declared illegal by the Supreme court, but only after Talmadge and Thompson both claimed the office for 67 days and had set up rival state governments.

When the court decision came down, Talmadge stalked out of the executive chambers his supporters held seized in a midnight coup and flung a defiant "I'll be back" at the victorious Thompson forces.

Since then Talmadge has campaign steadily up and down the state against President Truman's civil rights program.

The Meaning of America

HERBERT HOOVER, in a talk made in the little town of West Branch, Iowa, where he was born, gave one of the finest expressions ever made of what this country stands for.

"America means far more than a continent bounded by two oceans," he said. "It is more than pride of military power, glory in war, or in victory. It means more than the vast expanse of farms, of great factories or mines, magnificent cities, or millions of automobiles and radios. It is more even than the traditions of the great tide westward from Europe which pioneered the conquest of a continent. It is more than our literature, our music, our poetry . . .

"The meaning of our word 'America' flows from one pure spring. The soul of our America is in its freedom of mind and spirit in man. Here alone are the open windows through which pours the sunlight of the human spirit. Here alone is human dignity not a dream, but an accomplishment."

Those who attempt to interpret the greatness of this country in purely material terms are blind to the basic truths. Other nations possess resources which are comparable to ours.

We have no monopoly on intelligence, on knowledge, on energy, on the potential ability to create and build. But here, alone of the great powers of the modern world, we have maintained the right of the individual to do whatever he pleases within the framework of the law. We have said, in effect, that the man controls the state—and the state does not control the man.

This has been one of the greatest achievements in the whole vast sweep of recorded history. Yet we must never forget that freedom must always be guarded and defended
if it is to live. Elsewhere in his address, speaking of his boyhood, Mr. Hoover said,
"In those primitive days, social security was had from the cellar, not from the Federal government."

The most dangerous tendency of our times lies in our ever-increasing dependence on government. When we buy a dubious "security" at the price of loss of personal liberty,
we are following the same old downhill path
that has led to oppression and dictatorship
throughout the world.

The real American values are spiritual.
All our other values, like all our wealth and power, stem from them alone. They have sustained us in every period of adversity, ranging from disastrous depressions to terrible wars. And in those values, based as they are upon the dignity and rights of man,
we can find the real meaning of America.

The Sneezing Season

THERE is probably to be more sneezing this month than during any other period of the year. For this is open season for allergies, and the suffering red-eyed victims are carrying spare-man-sized handkerchiefs.

According to Dr. John L. Lavan, in an article written for the World Book Encyclopedia, a substance called histamine is partially responsible for a host of allergies, including hay fever, asthma, hives, eczema,
inflammation of the eye membranes, digestive disturbances, migraine headaches, and even some forms of epilepsy.

The trouble maker, histamine, is always present in the cells of the body. When a person comes in contact with an offending substance, histamine enters the blood. When histamine occurs in the blood stream in too large amounts, it causes the blood vessels and the surrounding tissues to swell. As little as one-millionth part of histamine in the blood is capable of producing allergic symptoms. If the swelling occurs in the nasal mucous membranes, hay fever might result.
Swelling in the lining of the bronchial tubes
may produce asthma.

It is not yet understood what causes the body of an individual to become sensitive to a substance which is harmless, or even wholesome, to another person.

During the war, one healthy draftee was whisked off to camp, where he quickly passed the mental and physical exam. Two days later he was home with an honorable discharge. The patriotic lad enlisted in the Navy—but again he was rejected after several days. The boy was unable to wear Army or Navy clothes because he was allergic to a substance used in the manufacture of the material.

According to Dr. Lavan, allergies can be treated by desensitization, which makes the patient less sensitive to the offending substance. This is accomplished by giving the patient small doses of the substance until a natural immunity develops. This treatment is administered with either a hypodermic or taken through the mouth.

World Peace Possible When We Bicker at Home?

We're All in Same Class

To the Editor: Ever since our relations with Russia have become a bit strained, I for one have been hoping and praying that my generation will not have to endure another world war. It is not inevitable, but think, how can it be avoided?

How can two large nations get along peaceably with one another, two nations made up of many peoples, different religions, colors and creeds? Two nations with entirely different ways of thinking, when one small town cannot, when this town cannot live, its peoples among themselves, without continual mud-slinging, slandering, distrust and bickering.

What does it matter really whether a man lives in Hilldale or his address is Rosedale drive? In Heaven I am sure a man still judged for himself alone
rather than for the house he lives in.
Pottstown, with its cliques and classes,
is as old-fashioned today as grandmother's molasses sulphur tonic. We cannot judge a whole group of people by a few individuals. Remember what Ernie Pyle wrote from the battlefields of World War II? He had witnessed many wounded and dying, had seen much blood flow, he wrote, but all that blood was of the same color.

The war took many of our youngest men. Don't they deserve a chance?
Shouldn't they be commended rather than censured for living in a low rental area in order that they might some day live in a home of their choice?

"The lasting peace" isn't and shouldn't be something you just read about. It shouldn't be something we just talk about.
Why can't we start now, in Pottstown, in a little part of a big United States?
Pottstown T. M. C.

Making the Most of It

To the Editor: In answer to H. F. C.
("Why Fuss About Dump Fire?" Readers Say, Sept. 7), why do the people with the least intelligence pop off the most?

H. F. C. would do well to learn the facts before criticizing the Hilldale people. Does this particular person know that the majority of people living in Hilldale are veterans?

Yes, the same men who fought so people like H. F. C. could have a nice, comfortable home to live in while they had to come back to the Hilldale apartments.

We don't like it any better than you would, but nevertheless we are humans and do have to live somewhere. As it is, there are enough inconveniences down here without having to smell garbage burn.

I didn't happen to be the one who wrote the previous letter about the burning garbage, but I do have a nose and the aroma isn't very pleasant. The only reason I am writing this letter is to let H. F. C. know we aren't living here by choice, but only by necessity.

He might do well to do something about the housing shortage instead of popping off about the people living in Hilldale. Then we occupants wouldn't have to be the subject of slander by misinformed people.

Pottstown A HILLDALE TENANT

Veterans' Rights Ignored

To the Editor: It is certainly pleasing to see that Mr. Myers is one member of the civil service commission who wants to bring order out of chaos and give the veterans the break to which they are entitled by law.

Often, as in the case of housing, the public has demonstrated its apathy toward the plight of the veterans. But it isn't often when two public officials—in this case, Mr. Saylor and Mr. Miller—have the gall to openly defy the rights of the veteran.

A lot of us veterans are getting fed up on the treatment we're getting from public officials. The pretty speeches they made during the war and to which we're forced to listen on Memorial Day are a lot of poppycock.

It's not a case of turning color. It's just plain hypocrisy.

I don't agree with any veteran's attitude of "the world owes me a living."
Yet when our State has enacted laws protecting the rights of the veteran, I want to see these laws obeyed.

Thank the Lord, I say again, for Mr.
Myers' integrity to his office!

Orioles' Club Singled Out

To the Editor: It looks to me like somebody's been given a rotten deal in those slot machine raids of the other night.

It's a well known fact that the Orioles lodge is one of the few clubs in town that doesn't ask a man how big an automobile he drives or how much cash he has in the bank before he's permitted to join. In other words, it's a lodge for the average working man.

Then why should this lodge be singled out among all in town for a crackdown?
It looks very much that this club neglected its "friendships" among the policemen. These "friendships" shouldn't mean anything, but they do.

If I were chief of police and given a warrant to serve on the Orioles, I would demand before serving it that warrants be issued for every other known violator in Pottstown.
Pottstown H. C. K.

A Quick Alternative

To the Editor: In reply to L. B.
("Can't Get Sick on Thursday," Readers Say, Sept. 1) here's a suggestion.

If, by chance, you should get sick on a Thursday, and after you have exhausted all your resources in attempting to find a doctor, which you say can't be found on that day, there is only one thing left for you to do.

Drop dead!

To the Editor: Here is a plug for the YMCA. I hope that the "X" goes over the top on its membership drive. I have been a member of the "Y" for 25 years and I have found fellowship there.

There is no finer organization in Pottstown than the YMCA.

I Went West

CALIFORNIA HAS its climate, its oranges, its lazy living, and its Hollywood.
But it hasn't got New York.

No, this isn't an anti-California column or a fill-in of I hate Hollywood Because. I ask nothing of California. I have not acts to grind.

It's just that I'm carrying a torch for New York. California is all right, and I see no reason why it shouldn't have been admitted into the Union,
but there seems to be something temporary about the whole thing—as if Mr. Mayer and Mr. Zanuck would tear it down tomorrow morning.

There is, however, a wonderful niche of Los Angeles that I never knew existed until a real estate agent bound, gagged, and threatened to tie me up to the track of a toy train unless I'd buy the darn place. I bought.

So, ladies and gentlemen, come with me to picturesque Encino, 10 miles outside of Hollywood in the Sun Fernando

Valley. Population, 3000. But what a 3000!

WHERE ELSE could you see Clark Gable painting his fence in his shorts, or Ann Sheridan in peddle-pushers put-tering about her petunias, or Mickey Rooney, just for the exercise, mowing his mother's lawn?

And what other town can point to such a grand old man of grand old men as its honorary mayor, Al Jolson? Mr. J. is the only mayor who performs his duty from one knee.

Al was a cinema man when he was married to Ruby Keeler. He bought back his old home in time to take over for the late Tom Breeman.

Incidentally, Encino, which first became known through Tom Breeman, is going to build a community center and name it after this one of the most loved men in all of show business. Tourists are always driving through Encino to see where Tom lived. Soon, they'll be able to contribute to the building of an institution that will bear his name.

Down my street in one direction is Bud Abbott, in the other, Alvin Roy.
Riding their horses through the lot next door are Theresa Wright and her husband, Nivian Busch.

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE
BERTHA W., 32, is the wife of a prominent business executive.

"Dr. Crane, for ten years I have been simply miserable," she spoke despondently.
"I am spoiling my husband's happiness and that of our little boy."

"But I don't want to be like this. I want to feel like other women. Dr. Crane,
I don't dare go on shopping trips alone.
I am afraid of getting very far away from home."

"Unless my husband is by my side, I feel so panicky I actually begin to scream."
"Oh, Dr. Crane, if something isn't done soon, I think I shall die. I can't stand this torture much longer."

SPACE LIMITATIONS will force me to skip many details in briefly outlining this case. But what happened ten years ago to start this fear? For there is always a cause for every psychological effect.

"I don't know," Bertha answered my query. But she did know! And I also knew that she knew, but I realized she was simply afraid to bring out the dreadful monster into the light of cold analysis and verbal dissection.

Ten years ago she got caught up in a near scandal. She was with a girl friend and a couple of strange men.
The men piled the women with liquor, and drove to the Forest Preserve. The women escaped assault only by screaming just as a police squad car was driving along the highway.

Bertha felt that she had nearly ruined her husband's professional career, for the case reached the newspapers.

She has brooded over this old affair during the intervening years. She criticizes herself daily. Her self-accusations nearly drive her to suicide. She has had a nervous breakdown as a result of them.

She also feels that she is a drag on her talented husband's success. Psychologically, however, we know that people tend to forget unpleasant memories. Then why doesn't Bertha let the past lie buried?

Because she resurrects it every day!
But why should she recall this episode
so frequently when it would seem expendent to erase it from memory?

The desire for physical love and affection is second in strength to our food hunger.

A love hungry wife is reminded of romance. The simple trouble with Bertha is that her husband is so busy and fond of bowling and poker playing,
that he spends barely one night at home
per week.

Even then, he isn't affectionate. So she is being starved for erotic satisfaction. So she cannot help recalling the scene where a virile male was decidedly affectionate.

But her conscience then makes her feel guilty, so she moans about the past and cries because she cannot forget it.

WE VIEW WITH ALARM!

Hollywood

By ABE BURROWS

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 9 — For months I had a radio program which I used to refer to as "my 15 minute futile race against television." In introduced an educational feature.

In this course I lectured on the various branches of the fields of culture such as writing, painting, wood-carving, bicycle repair, etc.

When Edith Gwynn asked me to be a guest columnist I eagerly seized the opportunity because I figure it gives me a chance to do another type of essay on "How To Write Motion Picture Screen Plays." So—if you will pay close attention, many of you readers who haven't been able to make a living at anything, in a few weeks will be quite capable of
NOT making a living in Hollywood.

Screen writing is a highly specialized art which has developed steadily through the years from the time of the clump, flickering Keystone comedy until today when we have the modern highly-polished popcorn machine. Now, there is first of all the matter of choosing a subject. Various subjects make good screenplays . . . Love, Adventure, Murder, South Sea Islands, Dogs, Stolen Jewels, Foreign Spies and Amnesia . . . A truly successful screen play should contain all of these.

DIALOGUE IS THE talk that takes place between the actors in a movie — except in the case of Gary Cooper.

Now as for plots. Very often these days when you go to a movie you will notice that some of the pictures have plots. The average producer has no objection to a picture having a plot. He objects that the plot is sufficiently confusing. Here's a plot that is ideal if you are writing a story for Bing Crosby and Barry Fitzgerald. In this plot Barry Fitzgerald is an old sea captain who gets Bing Crosby as his first mate. Barry dislikes Bing's breeziness at first but then one day Barry accidentally falls overboard and gets caught in the clutches of an octopus. Bing leaps into a small boat, rows over to the octopus and starts singing. At the end of Bing's song the octopus lets go of Barry in order to applaud Bing. Clever twist. Barry is saved and he and Bing become friends.
Suggested title for this picture
"Rowing My Way."

IN WRITING for pictures there are fundamental rules which it pays to follow:

1. All heroes should be rich and handsome and all heroines should be extremely beautiful.
2. This is known as realism.
3. All pictures should have happy endings except tragedies
—which should be avoided.

You can do no better than to write a story which is based on the life of some famous composer. First select any well-known composer . . .
Bethoven, Brahms, Mozart . . .
Read his biography and learn all the facts about his life. Then ignore them.

Now in all pictures remember that "Love" is still the most important ingredient. Here's a good formula:
The action should take place on a moonlit terrace . . . The man and the girl stand close to each other, preferably trembling. He quietly takes out his cigarette case, lights
three cigarettes and gives her two . . .
Then he says "Afraid?" . . .
Then he says "You ARE afraid?" . . .
Then he grabs her . . . She struggles violently for two seconds, then slowly over her arm steals around his neck . . . then another arm steals around his neck . . . And so on,

How's Your Mind?

THE ANSWER, QUICK!

1. What is Popocatepeti?
2. In the theater what part is played by an ingenue?
3. When setting a table should the sharp edge of the knife be turned away or toward the plate?
4. What is a "goober"?
5. Can you unscramble this confusing proverb: Spirit weak but is the,
the willing is flesh?

JOBS UPON A TIME

Anthony Quinn was born in Mexico, of Mexican and Irish parentage. His dad died when he was 12, and because he was large for his age he got a job in a mattress factory to support his mother.

Anthony played several smaller gangster roles in pictures and then was cast as a Cheyenne Indian in The Plainsman. China Sky and Book to Bataan were two of his more recent films. He is married to Katherine DeMille, Producer Cecil B. DeMille's daughter. They have a daughter, Christina. Tony is said to be quitting Hollywood for a time to see if he likes stage productions better.

Lina Romay is the daughter of a Mexican diplomat, who, in 1940, was consul for his government in Detroit, Mich. Lina's singing and guitar playing were heard in that city by Bandmaster Xavier Cugat and a contract resulted — New York and Hollywood following. In private life Lina is Mrs. Larry Adams. She likes bright colors, movies, swimming and sewing. She has appeared in "Love Laughs at Andy Hardy" and "Weekend at the Waldorf."

North Coventry Has Grange Youth Night With Speech, Song

It was "Youth Night" at a meeting of 50 members of North Coventry grange last night, with the entire program in charge of the youth committee, headed by Jack Walters.

A highlight of the session was a speech by George Kreps who declared:

"When the farmers of America determine to lift their bargaining position and their standard of living up on an equality with the bargaining power and standard of living enjoyed by business and labor groups, America's general economy will succeed as it never has succeeded before."

During the business session, it was announced that a Farm and Home display will be held in North Coventry High school, Sept. 28, a joint project of the grange and school.

Crops will be exhibited, and the women of the grange will display articles made from feed bags.

Two solos were sung at the meeting by Richard Hohl, a skit was presented by Kent High, Richard Walters and Charlotte High, and an orchestral pantomime was staged by Leah Snyder, Gertrude Ropeter, Viridella Baldorf, Miss High, Robert Swavely, Mr. Richard Walters, High, Jack Walters and Emma Hughes.

Marjorie Berriker, Arlene Walters and Phyllis Kulp formed a vocal trio that sang two selections.

ESCAPED CONVICT NABBED
VANDERGRIFT, Sept. 9 (AP)—Policeman H. L. Schrenkengost said today that Otto Neff, 38, identified as a prisoner who escaped from the Moundsville, W. Va., penitentiary, July 30, had been arrested in a series of local robberies.

Cannibalism is her crime, so Shizuko Tsutsui, former Japanese army nurse, starts her trip to prison for five years at Yokohama. She was found guilty with several other defendants of eating the liver of an American flyer whose plane was shot down during the war.

Cub Pack to Hold Picnic Tomorrow

Cub Pack 53 will hold its annual Summer picnic tomorrow from 2 p. m. until dark at Ringing Rocks park.

The Junior Chamber of Commerce will present a trophy to the pack team, which won the championship in the Midget Baseball league.

Other features of the event will be a baseball game between cubbers and fathers, sessions of boys' and adults' games, roller skating, a brief pack meeting and presentation of awards.

Among the men in charge of the picnic are Paul Salter, William Morrell, W. Mark Henricks, A. W. Koppenhaver, LeRoy R. Moyer, cubmaster, and J. H. Dickinson.

Four den chiefs of the pack, Roland Smith, James Stetler, Eugene Bertollet and Robert Wilkins, together with Jack Eck, pack committeeman, will attend a chiefs' pow-wow tomorrow and Sunday at Camp Delmont.

Rotarians Told of Hitler's Rise to Power By Anti-Nazi Editor Who Knew Him

Gerhart H. Seger, one-time German Reichstag member and now editor of an anti-Nazi German-language newspaper in New York, last night told 70 Rotarians of Hitler's rise to power. The husky, gray-haired lecturer, who said he knew Hitler personally, described him as being a shrewd man but no intellectual giant. Born in Austria, Hitler became a member of the German Army in World War I and stayed in the army even after the war. It was in this capacity that he attended a National Socialist party rally in 1920 to report on the party's doings to the army. Soon afterwards he left the army and became the secretary of a group. For ten years he was leader of a group, Seger went on, when, in 1933 he changed the 130-member organization into the Nazi party. Seeking the chancellorship, Hitler got only 33 percent of the Reichstag's votes. He set fire to the building in a fury.

Chamber to Send Out Fire Prevention Forms

The Chamber of Commerce will mail check-up forms on fire hazards to local stores, plants, schools, hospitals and other institutions as part of Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 3 to 9. The decision was made at a meeting of the Chamber's Fire Prevention committee yesterday in the chambers quarters in the Security Trust building. David C. Knauer, chairman was in charge. The establishments will fill out the forms and mail them back.

Owls Looking Ahead: Plan for Yule Party

Thirty members of Pottstown Nest 1393, Order of Owls, got their mind off yesterday's humidity and showers when they laid the preliminary plans at last night's meeting for the group's big Christmas party for children. Martin Friedman was named to head a committee that will work out details of the party. The meeting, in charge of William Nyman, president, also saw the initiation of five new members and received applications from 21 men for membership.

Appointment or Promotion.—An examination for a public position under the Common-wealth, or any political subdivision thereof, such soldier's examination shall be marked or graded an additional ten points above the mark or grade credited for the examination, and the total mark or grade thus obtained shall represent the final mark or grade of such soldier, and shall determine his standing on any eligibility or promotional list, certified or furnished to the appointing or promoting power.

A misunderstanding had led the commission to rule earlier that the ten points would not be added in a promotional examination.

LAST NIGHT, Assistant Borough Solicitor L. Stanley Mauer carefully read the pertinent portions of the law and explained them to the three-man board.

They questioned him closely, declaring, "We're setting a precedent here and we want to be sure we're absolutely right."

Mauer gave his opinion that the ten points had to be granted, and that only the men with wartime service were to receive them.

Miller commented, "The law must be followed, of course, but I question its fairness. Older men who don't happen to have war service will have no incentive to take these examinations in the future if they know the veterans will always receive an additional credit."

Miller also described how the true-or-false question, "An attempt to commit suicide is not a crime," had been mis-marked.

The questions had been drawn from several sources, he said, and in making up the "answer key" to the questions, this one had been misread, so that the word "not" had been overlooked.

Bridgman marked the question "false" while the other two men called it "true." Later, it was discovered that Bridgman's answer was incorrect.

Actually, it has been pointed out, an attempt at suicide is not a crime in Pennsylvania.

THE OVERALL RATINGS included a score compounded of the written examination, recommendations by the police chief and burgess, a physical check and oral interviews with the commission.

Since the three leading contenders were close in the earlier phases of the competition, the results of the written test were crucial. Myers last night vehemently asserted that so far as his group was concerned, politics had not been played and there was no favoritism shown.

"I promised nothing to any of the candidates," the chairman asserted. "I don't see why politics should come into this at all. Council can make its appointment as it pleases, but we want our recommendation to be absolutely straight."

The revised recommendations made last night now were "straight," the white-haired commissioner said.

THE PAST WEDNESDAY night, when Myers returned from his vacation, having been in the Poconos since Aug. 27, he expressed surprise and confusion at the turn of events in the sergeancy issue.

To his question why the other two commissioners did not wait until he returned to Pottstown, Miller replied that public opinion would have been exceedingly unfavorable if we had postponed remarking the papers until just a couple of nights before council met.

Myers, in turn, assured the other two men, "I never doubted the integrity of any member of this commission."

The next development in the sergeancy issue will be tonight at 7:30 o'clock when council's police committee meets in borough hall.

Committee chairman J. Max Creswell has said that the committee's recommendation at Monday night's council meeting will be decided tonight.

Whether or not his group would make a specific recommendation, or merely pass on the Civil Service commission's list of three top names, Creswell did not say.

K of C Committee Heads Draft Plans for Year

Committee chairman of Father Bally Council 1192, Knights of Columbus, held an organization meeting last night in the council chambers to plan for the coming fiscal year.

Themes of the session were a concerted effort to increase the membership and the stimulation of interest in all phases of council activity by the present members.

Each committee chairman will, in turn, contact several council members to aid them in their outlined program.

Attending were Stephen J. Vagasky, general program chairman; John G. Katona, publicity and council bulletin; Frank Formando, membership; Albert Berthold, council activity; Francis Hennessey, Catholic activity, while Peter J. Lawler sat in on the meeting in his capacity of grand knight.

ments on the areas of occupation in Germany and we intend to stay."

SUBSEQUENTLY Mr. Truman told newsmen that he had approved this Marshall statement in advance.

Dubinsky recently returned from serving as an American delegate to the Marshall plan conference of the European labor movement in London. He is president of the AFL-International Ladies' Garment Workers Union.

Mr. Truman's double-barreled declaration on the German situation came as a new clash, marked by gunfire and stonings, made the Berlin crisis more acute.

Defiant masses of Berliners, estimated at 150,000 to 250,000, gathered out against Communism in the largest demonstration in the blocked city since the war.

Berlin dispatches said the huge throng jammed a square before the ruins of the Reichstag, only 50 yards from the boundary of the Soviet zone, and roared their protest against Communist attempts to seize power.

sary to harmonize national representation with the popular will. Certainly the voting laws must be overhauled. But it is inadmissible that under the pretext of doing this, an election should be delayed.

The French Peoples' Rally holds there is no other democratic solution than to hold general elections as soon as possible. It condemns any and all combinations (of government) which, in delaying the elections, prolong the system of permanent crisis which endangers the republic and the very life of France.

Queuille accepted the premiership nomination after getting the support of the Socialist party.

men were wounded by gunfire and claimed "one is presumed to have been injured fatally."

Tonight's was the second shooting incident in Berlin's current crisis. The other occurred Aug. 20, when Russian soldiers shot upon German civilians who stoned them during a blackmarket raid in downtown Potsdamer Platz.

In tonight's demonstration, anti-Communist Germans first jeered at three Soviet soldiers who were driving by jeep to take up sentry duty. They were driving inside the British sector toward the Russian war memorial near the Reichstag. One of the Russians stood up in the jeep with a tommygun and warned the crowd to stand back.

ment at first grade desks this year as compared to 310 in 1947.

THE GREATEST attendance figures for the day came from the Junior High school where 876 students bulged the walls. Fifteen Eighth grade students, crowded out of the Upper Pottsgrove school, helped to swell the Junior High school total.

Vernon H. W. Dessenberger, principal, estimated the school could hold an additional 100 pupils in addition to the already heavy total. He said, however, that it would be against good teaching principles to fill classrooms to capacity since students could not receive individual attention.

The school faced one overcrowding problem. The auditorium holds only 869 students, according to its seating plan, seven less than the number of pupils attending.

Senior High school facilities are not over-crowded by the total of 763 students registered there, Stanley I. Davenport Jr., vice principal, reported.

Attendance figures at the borough schools yesterday were, in addition to the Senior and Junior High schools: Jefferson, 629; Lincoln, 344; Rupert, 333; Washington, 185; St. Clair, 181; and Jackson, 34.

Yugoslav Note Termed 'Libelous' by Romania

LONDON, Sept. 9 (AP)—The Romanian telegraph agency said today Romania has dismissed as "slandering and libelous" an Aug. 25 note from Yugoslavia saying Romanian leaders seek the overthrow of Premier Marshal Tito.

The agency said the government's reply was handed to the Yugoslav charge d'affaires in Bucharest today by the Romanian foreign ministry. It quoted the Romanian note as saying the Yugoslav communication "consists from beginning to end of false and slanderous affirmations."

The agency said Romania termed the Yugoslav move an attempt to challenge "the right of politicians in Romania to express their opinions freely."

matically, it was explained by Walter Foley, manager of the Philadelphia Electric company's area office.

Foley spent most of the night with crews restoring service to isolated Chester county homes affected by lightning strikes on one-home transformers.

Less than a dozen families were affected, he asserted, with the trouble centering around Parkerford.

The second storm, beginning in the borough at 9:05 o'clock, caught another brigade of residents on the sidewalk, but lasted only a few minutes.

When the first storm struck, shortly after 6 o'clock, the thermometer was registering 86 degrees as will be brought to Pottstown today for a preliminary hearing.

Witnesses have said the slaying occurred after Brown spilled beer on Darden's trousers. The Norristown youth was seen last sprinting down an alley near the hotel.

Nelson, who is representing the suspect's father and who pledged Darden's surrender today, was unavailable last night.

All U. S. Employees, Except Mail Men, Get Psychology Study

BOSTON, Sept. 9 (AP)—Among government employees, only the mail man receives no psychological studies to help him in his human relations.

Whether the mail man is neglected because he is so stable he doesn't need psychological aid or for some other reason was not explained.

The postman's psychological situation and that of the entire Post Office department, which receives no psychology appropriations, was reported by Dr. Donald G. Marquis, of the University of Michigan, in his annual address today as President of the American Psychological Association.

"Every one of the Federal departments, with the exception of the post office," said Dr. Marquis, "is now supporting research in human behavior. The Veterans' administration and the United States Public Health service are spending between two and three million dollars annually in developing the field of clinical psychology."

CLINICAL PSYCHOLOGY applies this science to the troubles of individuals, who are not sick, but who are studied much as a doctor studies an ailing patient.

"The departments of Army, Navy and Air Force," Dr. Marquis said, "now the biggest customers of research of all kinds, have budgeted between six and seven millions this year for studies in psychology and social science."

"There is good reason to believe that the total level of support will have to be doubled or tripled before the clearly recognized needs of the nation will be even approximately met."

"But there is no guarantee that we can deliver what is expected." The difficulty, Dr. Marquis said, is due to psychology's advance into fields that psychologists had not previously studied enough to learn sure methods of testing. These new fields he said include the links between personal relations and social psychology, and extensions into anthropology, sociology, economics and political sciences.

Missing

Dr. Marquis proposed that the American Psychological Association get busy planning how to study these new frontiers of research.

The watch and clock industry was introduced into Switzerland by Voltaire.

Probing Senators Hear Fantastic Reports Of Fraud in U. S. Export Program

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9 (AP)—Astonished senators dug up these assorted facts today about this government's export license program:

1. Nails 2½ and 3 inches long—badly needed to build homes—were exported the past year as "shoe laces."

2. A woman government clerk issued permits to export more than 2,000,000 pounds of lard during a period when the quota was 199,000 pounds.

3. A man under suspicion in connection with forged licenses was put on a "watch list," and then two weeks later, granted a permit to export a million dollars worth of rice.

4. Government officials here continued to use a perforating machine to validate licenses for five months after they learned a similar machine was turning out forged licenses. They explained they lacked $750 to change the original machine.

5. A New York City exporter told about paying $9400 for two permits to ship flour to Brazil. He said the money went to another exporter who previously testified to paying more than $29,000 for 15 export permits that Senate investigators say were forged.

Plans Are Mapped For Yule Seal Sale

Plans for the sale of Christmas seals in the Pottstown area were drafted at an organization meeting of the local seal sale committee at the Howard Johnson restaurant yesterday.

The meeting was presided over by William M. Hiester, chairman. Others who attended were Miss Martha B. Shoemaker, executive secretary of the Family Welfare society; Miss Leona Smith and Miss the Senate investigating subcommittee finally investigating that "it is impossible to tell what went out of this country under the export system."

Deadly gases from Mount Hibokhibok (above) were reported yesterday to be threatening the lives of 15,000 Filipinos marooned on Camiguin, a tiny island. An urgent call for rescue vessels was heard in Manila. The last time this volcano erupted was 77 years ago and it has long been considered extinct.

15,000 Filipinos Periled By Gases From Volcano

MANILA, Sept. 9 (AP)—Deadly gases from a volcano late tonight imperiled the lives of 15,000 Filipinos marooned on the tiny island of Camiguin.

News of what could be one of the great disasters of modern times came in a frantic radio appeal for rescue ships. It was broadcast from a Philippine navy patrol craft a little before 11 p. m. (11 a. m. Pottstown time). There was no second message.

The island is about 450 miles by air southeast of Manila and a dozen miles north of the coast of Mindanao.

The brief appeal was signed by Arturo Alcaraz, Philippines government volcano expert, who has been on the scene since Mt. Hibokhibok began erupting Sept. 1.

The witnesses told a House labor subcommittee, headed by Rep. Max Schwabe (R-Mo.), that union members are also under pressure to support Communist newspapers.

"The workers live only in fear," said Morris Goldner, president of the Independent Fur Manufacturers' association.

William Pike, labor relations director for the Associated Fur Manufacturers, Inc., testified that union officers openly solicit money from union members for the Daily Worker, Communist party newspaper.

The House group is looking into claims that Red leaders have seized control of the rich fur industry in New York and infiltrated into other branches of American labor.

Goldner, a veteran of 39 years in the fur business, said he was ousted from his union job three years ago because he fought the present leaders of the CIO-International Fur and Leather workers union.

Temporary Embargo On Oil Exports Levied

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9 (AP)—The government tonight announced that temporary embargo on the export of gasoline, including aviation fuel, and other oils from West Coast ports will go into effect Sept. 11 at 12:01 a. m.

Besides gasoline, the fuels affected include kerosene, gas oil and distillate fuel oil.

Department of Commerce officials, in making the announcement, said the embargo will affect Army and Navy shipments only in so far as they use commercial vessels.

Hopkins' Papers Deny U. S. Agreed Reds Take Berlin

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9 (AP)—The final installment of "the secret papers of Harry L. Hopkins in Collier's" today asserts flatly that there was no secret agreement to permit the Russians to enter Berlin first.

Hopkins notes say: "It is equally untrue that General Bradley paused on the Elbe river at the request of the Russians so the Russians could break through to Berlin first."

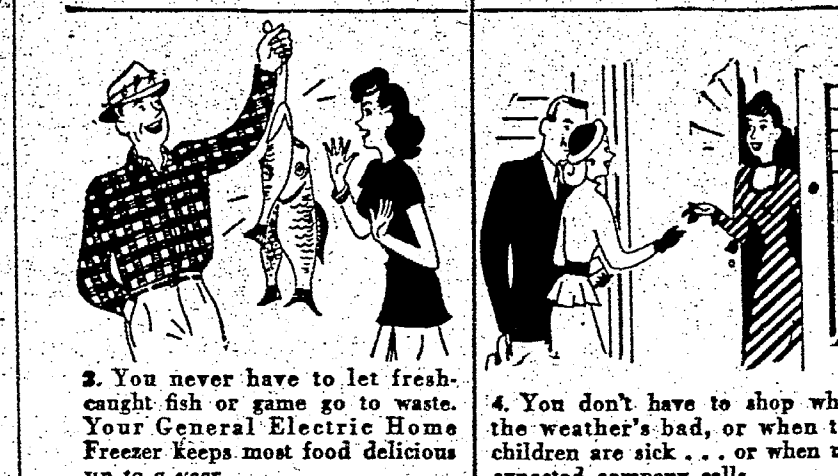

"Bradley did get a division out towards Potsdam but it far out-reached itself; supplies were totally inadequate and anyone who knows anything knows we would have taken Berlin had we been able to do so."

This final installment details the last meeting between President Roosevelt's confidant and Russian Premier Josef Stalin in late May, 1945. It took place in Moscow when Hopkins was sent there by President Truman during the San Francisco conference.

Hopkins warned Stalin that US-USSR co-operation on the Roosevelt model couldn't continue if American public opinion continued to deteriorate because of the manner in which the Soviets were making decisions in their zone without reference to the other major powers.

LONGSHOREMEN OFFER TO TALK OF SETTLEMENT

Will Submit Proposal To Renew Negotiations On West Coast Strike

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 9 (AP)—The CIO longshoremen's union said today the union plans to "officially" transmit to the employers an offer to resume negotiations and end the strike that has tied up West coast shipping for a week.

This will be done, said President Harry Bridges, after votes are counted tomorrow on the union referendum on two proposals by the shipowners.

Longshoremen voted along on: (1) whether to accept the last offer of the ship operators, and (2) on the shipowners demand that the union file anti-Communist affidavits under the Taft-Hartley law. A strong negative vote on both issues is predicted.

In Washington, today, attorneys for the National Labor Relations board said they didn't know whether the longshoremen had violated the Taft-Hartley law would be pressed. The charges may be dropped. This question involved the hiring hall. The NLRB said employment of a union dispatcher in the hall violated the law.

The shipowners finally agreed to continue the hiring hall arrangement, as now constituted, until the U. S. Supreme court rules on its legality under Taft-Hartley. At the last minute, the union rejected this, saying they didn't want a hiring hall clause "with strings attached."

The shipowners have stated they will not bargain with the union until its top officials file affidavits saying whether they are Communists.

U. S. Urges Slight Delay In Session on Italian Colonies

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9 (AP)—The United States told Russia today that tomorrow is too soon to reopen talks on the fate of Italy's war-lost colonies, and suggested Monday instead.

The Russians suggested that the talks start in Paris, tomorrow. Secretary of State Marshall, in a memo to the Soviet embassy, said the U. S. was "wholly agreeable" to the Paris meeting. But he said the American delegation could not be briefed and dispatched in time to get to Paris tomorrow.

If the Monday, Sept. 13 date is accepted it will leave only three days to discuss the colonies question before a Sept. 15 deadline. The Italian peace treaty provides that the United States, Russia, France and Britain agree on the issue by Sept. 15 or turn it over to the United Nations.

Like the United States, Britain and France have already agreed to start the talks before Sept. 15. Secretary of State Marshall is not due to reach Paris until Sept. 19, ten days hence, to attend the opening of the United Nations general assembly on Sept. 21.

President Truman announced the 10-day interlude before Marshall reaches Paris. He said Marshall will fly in the presidential plane "Independence."

Mr. Truman backed up Marshall's statement that bipartisan agreement has been reached on the attitude the United States will take on the knotty problem of Italy's three former African colonies, Eritrea, Libya and Italian Somaliland.

President Truman Plans Tour Through West Similar to Dewey's

By The Associated Press President Truman plans to head West for an intensive two-week stumping campaign.

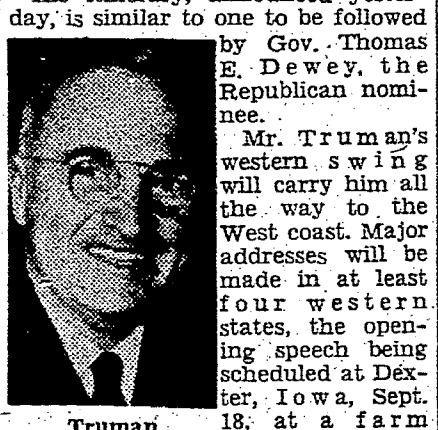

His itinerary, announced yesterday, is similar to one to be followed by Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, the Republican nominee.

Mr. Truman's western swing will carry him all the way to the West coast. Major addresses will be made in at least four western states, the opening speech being scheduled at Des Moines, Iowa, Sept. 18, at a farm rally.

Following the Dexter kick-off address, Mr. Truman is scheduled to speak at Denver and three other Colorado cities, in Salt Lake City, Sept. 21 or 22, San Francisco, Sept. 22 or 23, and Los Angeles. Whether or not he will swing back through the South is still undecided, he said. Several New York appearances are being considered. His last address will be in his home state of Missouri.

Dewey will begin his campaign at Des Moines with a major address Sept. 20. From there he will continue West, and his aides have indicated he will keep on going until he gets to the coast.

THE REPUBLICAN nominee yesterday received his first big endorsement from a top labor organization, and the move led his

GREEKS CLAIM YUGOSLAV UNIT CROSSED BORDER

Say Nine Invaders Killed After Attack Is Repulsed by Army

ATHENS, Sept. 9 (AP)—War Minister George Stratos said tonight a group of Yugoslav troops had invaded Greece and had been thrown out. He appealed for international help to prevent a general war in the Balkans.

Stratos said the invasion came yesterday in the Kaimachlan area and that Greek forces killed nine Yugoslav soldiers and repelled the attack.

(In Belgrade, Yugoslav officials were silent on the reports).

The war minister charged Albania, Yugoslavia and Bulgaria with repeated border provocations, and cautioned that the Allies and the United Nations should act before an incident touches off general fighting.

He said Greece would consider accepting an international military force to seal the 500 miles of Greece's borders with her three neighbors.

STRATOS SAID the Yugoslavs captured one peak from the Greeks in thrusting across the frontier. Greek forces counter-attacked and regained the summit. The war minister said eight Yugoslav soldiers and one officer were left dead in Greece by the retreating forces and three Yugoslav soldiers were captured.

Stratos said at a news conference that there had been repeated incidents of gunfire against Greek troops from inside Albania and continued assistance by Yugoslavia and Bulgaria to the Greek guerrillas.

Vacationing With Mercury Readers

By THE VACATION EDITOR of The Mercury

There are a lot of troubles with the bright new world and one of them is its vacations.

The principal drawback to the average vacation is that there's not enough to it. Why? Because it takes too long to get there and back.

The soot-swept trains, endless lines of crawling, honking cars, interminable waits to do everything from buy postcards to go to the bathroom — those are some of the imperfections of the American vacation.

The vacation picture will clear, in our opinion, only when there is a helicopter in every garage. There will be some problems after that, but nothing like those today.

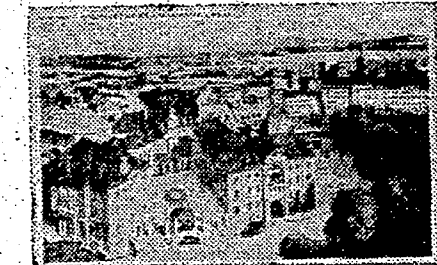

On an extended tour through Canada, Mr. and Mrs. Weidensaul, no address given, said they would do some fishing before they returned home. The Chateau Laurier, Ottawa, was on the card.

Chateau Laurier

Also in Canada, this time in Quebec, was R. A. Lacey, Pottstown RD 4. On the back of a card show-

Laval University

ing Laval university there, he jotted, "Enjoying a few days here for a change from Pottstown. Everything is really okay here."

'Master Cell' Tests Fail to Impress U. S.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9 (AP)—A Pure Food and Drug administration official said today that preliminary tests of the "Master Cells" of John Brown, Middleboro, Mass., farmer, have shown them to be without healing value.

George P. Larrick, assistant commissioner, said the agency's findings have been sent to the Boston field office. He told a reporter: "Preliminary tests do not demonstrate that the cells have any therapeutic value."

Larrick said the agency is continuing its investigation as to whether there have been interstate shipment of the cells. But thus far, he said, no indication has been found of interstate shipments "to amount to anything."

The agency can take official action in such cases only if interstate shipments are involved. Brown has claimed that his "Master Cell" will make crops grow faster and combat poultry and cattle diseases effectively.

O'Malley Warrants Now Charge Bribery

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9 (AP)—Magistrate John J. O'Malley, free in $75,000 bail on charges of misbehavior in office, today was accused in two new warrants of accepting a $500 bribe in a liquor case.

The 54-year old Republican and chief of Philadelphia's 33 magistrates for 14 years was specifically charged with extortion and "feloniously accepting or receiving a bribe."

The warrants were served on O'Malley by a state policeman just before he faced Judge Joseph Sloan in common pleas court.

Named as conspiring to obtain the bribe for O'Malley was Robert E. Hagan, an attorney.

In a previous warrant, O'Malley was accused of 517 separate illegal and dishonest acts involving 428 defendants during the last five years of his tenure as chief magistrate.

Governor James H. Duff refused to reappoint O'Malley to the chief magistrate's post this January. But the latter continued as a magistrate, which is an elected office.

VINCENT R. GRILLO, manager of a drinking club, told Judge Sloan he gave $500 to Hagan and presumed it ultimately went to O'Malley. The bribe was used to obtain discharge of Grillo's case before another magistrate on a charge of selling liquor without a license, Grillo said.

Grand Jury Indicts Youth in Bridgeport Murder

NORRISTOWN, Sept. 9 (AP)—A grand jury indictment returned today charged Mario Giannone, 19, with murdering 19-year-old Anna May Catanese of Bridgeport.

Awaiting the jury's presentment, Giannone told his attorney:

"I'm afraid I'm going to faint." He was returned to county prison and probably will be tried during November.

Ancient Order of Hibernians to Sponsor Youth Dances Again in Catholic School Hall

Again this year, the teen-age boys and girls of Pottstown will be treated to regular Sunday night dances at the St. Aloysius Catholic school hall with an even more complete and elaborate program than was enjoyed last Spring.

They will be sponsored again by the Ancient order of Hibernians auxiliary, as they were last Spring. At that time they were known as the Teen-Timer's Dances, and started with about 60 attending. By the end of the season the Auxiliary realized that the crowd had grown so large that steps would have to be taken to curb rowdiness and destructiveness. Over 150 attended the final dance.

This year the auxiliary has decided to turn the group into a permanent organization, complete with officers and the power to make themselves behave.

Thus, on the opening date of the gala first dance, Sunday, Sept. 19, the teen-agers will find that not only will they have a complete program and dance night outlined, but they will have their own organization and the ability to sponsor whatever type of programs they would like to have.

THOUGH THE GROUP will be known as the Catholic Youth organization, it will be open to children of all faiths. The only "must" in attending the dances is that each must register his name with the chaperones on hand and receive his card of admittance. This card he will keep and use as his admittance card throughout the Fall and Winter season. Each registrant may bring with him one guest, but he will be responsible for the actions of his guest.

The reason for the registrations is that the chaperones know the names of all attending to prevent disorderliness and unruliness. All registrations must be in by Oct. 10, and can be made each Sunday night.

In addition to the dances the auxiliary plans to have at least one other activity monthly for the organization, with the first on the schedule to be a doggie roast at the home of Mrs. Francis Hennessey, Kaniworth, Oct. 12. Also in October will be a Halloween party.

AT THE CLOSE of the membership drive and registration period, election of officers will be held Oct. 10, after which it will be up to the members to choose their own program and activity for each month and to make the plans concerning it. From the amount of interest being shown by the younger generation—the large amount of inquiries and delegates which have appeared before the committees of the AO of H, it is believed by the auxiliary members that a huge crowd will be on hand for the opening dance for which special arrangements have been made including an orchestra from New Philadelphia, the Teen-Timers band, and festival decorations.

Chaperones for this affair will be the Rev. George Miller, Mrs. Dorothy Chieffo, Miss Rose Quigley, Mrs. Rose Ripnak, Mrs. Betty Heath, Mrs. Dorothy Houck, Mrs. Kit Hennessey, Mrs. Mary Allen and Mrs. Mary Murphy, chairman of the dance committee and president of the AO of H auxiliary.

Navy Mothers Sponsor In-Gathering Program

The annual missionary in-gathering, sponsored by the Pottstown Navy Mothers, will be held in the Emmanuel Lutheran church Monday at 7:45 o'clock.

Sister Anna Schoneker, of the Mary Drexel home in Philadelphia, will deliver the address. During the war she acted as head sister of a home and hospital in Peking, China.

Pastors and congregations of Lutheran churches to be represented at the affair are the following: the Rev. and Mrs. Luther A. Krouse, of Emmanuel church; the Rev. and Mrs. Kenneth Anderson, of St. Peter's church; Stowe; the Rev. and Mrs. Theodore L. Fischer, of Transfiguration church; the Rev. and Mrs. Edward S. Horn, of St. James church; the Rev. and Mrs. Robert M. Lamparter, of St. John's church; South Pottstown; and the Rev. and Mrs. Asa S. Wohlson, of Grace church.

The public is invited to attend and all were asked to bring some new garment or bed linen for world relief.

Girl Scouts of Troop 4 Plan Future Activities

The opening Fall meeting of Girl Scout Troop 4 in Grace Lutheran church was spent in planning activities for the next three months.

Among the things which are planned is a Halloween party, election of officers and rearrangement of patrols, the visitation of another group to their meeting; the gathering of foodstuffs for a needy family for Thanksgiving and the furthering of their interest group work.

Leaders in charge of yesterday's program were Miss Mildred Geist, Miss Larue Bickel, Miss Beatrice Gehris.

Fall Fashion Show Is Main Project of Pottstown Doe Club

Despite the heavy rain and darkening clouds, more than 60 members of the Doe club ventured out to the Elks' club for the opening Fall dinner of the organization last night, to help make plans for one of the largest projects of the year for the club, the annual Fall fashion show.

This first fashion show of the Fall season will be an elaborate affair in the Elks' club Oct. 7 with a card party to follow. Refreshments will be served and prizes will be awarded.

New members admitted to the club last night were Mrs. Martha Lamoreaux, Mrs. Helen Patterson and Mrs. Mamie Embody, while those on the sick list were Mrs. Mable Read, Mrs. Blanche Maak and Mrs. Helen Vagasky.

PLANS WERE MADE for a board of governors dinner meeting at the Elks' home, Sept. 23, at 7 o'clock. At the regular meeting on the same date, Mrs. June Corlitz will bring to the group a talk and demonstration on homemaking and will show the members how to dress expertly on a small budget.

Dinner was served to the group last night at small tables attractively appointed with old-fashioned bouquets as centerpieces. Decorations were in charge of Mrs. Mildred Rhoads, assisted by Mrs. Leota Lessig, Mrs. Marie Montague, Mrs. Esther Dersh, Mrs. Nora St. Onge, Mrs. Esther Hendricks and Mrs. Edith Garber.

Hostesses for the evening were the hospitality committee including: Mrs. Fay Speer, chairman; Mrs. Helen Fray, Mrs. Ann Smith, Mrs. Rose Welkel, Mrs. Vivian Newhall, Mrs. Mary Sands and Mrs. Mable Delaney.

Chaplain for the evening was Mrs. Mable High, while the pianist was Mrs. Frances Cox. Awards were won by Mrs. Lillian Pendeman and Mrs. Peggy Houck.

The Egyptians recorded the destructiveness of the moth in hieroglyphics.

Summer Bride

Mrs. Irving Weisman (above) and her husband are honeymooning at Klamishe Lake in New York following their wedding in Philadelphia recently.

Mrs. Weisman was the former Miss Ina R. Stein, daughter of Mrs. Bessie A. Stein, 527 Chestnut street, while her husband is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Weisman, of Lancaster. Upon their return, the couple will reside in Lancaster.

Short Talks Heard By Lady Reindeer In O of IA Building

Among the speakers who presented short talks on present-day topics at the meeting last night of the Lady Reindeers in the O of IA hall were Mrs. Dorothy Law, Mrs. Ida Yeager and Miss Katherine DeWalt.

Seven members were initiated into membership by the degree team, Mrs. Dorothy Law, captain, after which they held the draping of the charter for the late Mrs. Sadie Walters. The group decided to purchase two one hundred dollar savings bonds.

Word was received from the Supreme president of the appointing of Mrs. Florence Matthews as deputy of the York herd and Mrs. Larena Smith as deputy of the Lebanon herd. Mrs. Smith will make a visit to the Lebanon herd on Thursday and all who wish to attend with her are asked to contact Mrs. Law.

A vocal solo was presented by Mrs. Eleanor Koval, while Mrs. Edith Flannigan presided at the meeting.

Pig-in-the-box winners were Mrs.

Ladies Auxiliary Plans To Attend Convention

Plans were discussed for the attending of the State convention of the Patriarch Militant at a meeting of the auxiliary last night in the Odu Fellows temple, at which time the local auxiliary will have charge of the mustering-in ceremony.

The convention will be in Philadelphia at the Benjamin Franklin hotel Oct. 17, 18 and 19.

Plans were discussed for the annual anniversary banquet Oct. 2, at 6:30 o'clock in the Odd Fellows hall with Mrs. Cora Pundt, chairman of the committee in charge.

Mrs. Ida Naylor is chairman of the ways and means committee which will sponsor a rummage sale Sept. 24 and 25.

Following the business meeting at which Mrs. Geneva Kramer presided, a bridal shower was held for Mrs. Doris Moyer, recently wed.

At the next meeting of the organization, Sept. 23, Mrs. Grace Linkenoffer and her staff, of Norristown, will be a guest of the lodge.

Lucille Fritz to Wed Robert E. Gardner

Mr. and Mrs. William N. Fritz Sr. announce the engagement of their daughter, Lucille to Mr. Robert E. Gardner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Holcomb, North Creek, N. Y.

The wedding date will be revealed in the near future.

Woman's Club Committee Meets at Quigley Home

Plans for the sale of Christmas candles and decorations were made last night by the members of the ways and means committee of the Pottstown Woman's club at a meeting in the home of Mrs. Raymond Quigley, 255 Walnut street.

A fashion show and card party were also planned for the Spring, and a cake sale was discussed for some time in the Fall.

Mrs. Quigley, chairman, presided at the meeting, and was assisted by co-chairman Mrs. Grace Hartenstein.

Following the short business meeting, refreshments were served and a social hour was enjoyed.

Those present were: Miss Florence Erb, Mrs. Lynn Edwards, Mrs. Blanche Boyer, Mrs. Kathryn Baird, Mrs. Cecile DeVincentis, Mrs. Dorothy Frederick, Mrs. Christine Grigg, Mrs. Kathryn Koehler, Mrs. Marion Pennypacker, Mrs. Ann Rex, Mrs. Jean Hubertis, Mrs. Dorothy Saylor, Mrs. Virginia Tinkler, Mrs. Gerald Witkore and Mrs. Alice Widdick.

On Tuesday night at 6:30 o'clock, the regular dinner meeting of the group will be held at Grow's restaurant.

Conference Reports Discussed by Women At Society Meeting

Reports from the many Summer conferences were the chief topic of interest to the members of the Woman's Missionary society of the Trinity Reformed church yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Paul Towers, 127 Chestnut street.

Reports from the Cedar Crest conference were presented by Mrs. Edna Clay, who told of the superb lectures given by Grace Sloan Overton, national speaker and writer on family life and marriage.

Mrs. C. C. Burdett told of the many things learned at the interdenominational conference at Beaver college and the Collegeville Assembly in Ursinus college.

OTHER TOPICS were discussed by Mrs. John B. Frantz in regard to the classes she taught at conferences in Hood, Heidelberg, Cedar Crest and Mid-West colleges.

The past winter the group decided to send packages of food to a Japanese master, the Rev. W. A. Schuchman, who was in the States yesterday, Mrs. Barclay Sheetz read a letter from him thanking the group for its generosity and telling how much the food meant to his family.

Following the meeting at which Mrs. Towers, president, presided, refreshments were served.

Attending were: Miss Elizabeth Biedewolf, Mrs. Jesse Evans, Mrs. Herbert Sutcliffe, Mrs. Edna Clay, Mrs. Burdett, Mrs. Frantz, Mrs. Clay, Mrs. Kline Geiger, Mrs. George Funk, Mrs. Blanche Bower, Mrs. A. W. Dotterer, Mrs. Sheetz and Mrs. Towers.

Little Mary Ann Pierce Feted at Birthday Party

Little Miss Mary Ann Pierce was hostess on her first birthday anniversary at a delightful party for her little friends and their mothers Wednesday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Pierce, 35 East Sixth street.

Following a peanut scramble and a trip to the fishing pond the little guests were served a buffet luncheon by the hostess' mother. A large plate of colored cupcakes, each bearing a single candle, for the guests, was used as a centerpiece, as well as a birthday cake. For the event the living room was attractively decorated in pink and white.

Those attending were: Andrea Rumler, David Rumler, Karen Moyer, Joan Kimmage, Jackie Edinger, Marvin Pierce, Patty Wack, Mervin Pierce, Kay Wack, Douglas Weidner, Joseph Sparr, Kathy McAndrew, Sandra McAndrews, Susan Kameron, Ronnie Kameron, Susan Strock, Mark Leblang.

East ruffed with the spade 5 and was overflew by the 7. The club A-10 and K were scored and the 5 led to East's Q.

To get out of his hand this time East led the club 5 to the 9. With East holding the spade Q-10-6 and South the A-J-8, Mr. Silidor now led the 8. East had to use his 10 to win this. Now he had no option but to give up the last two tricks with lead from the Q-6 into the A-J.

By this means Mr. Silidor managed to make his doubled game contract, losing only one trick each in hearts, clubs and spades.

Carbon Monoxide Fumes From Cesspool Kill Two

COATESVILLE, Sept. 9 (P)—A 32-year-old cesspool cleaning contractor and a 20-year-old youth who went to his rescue died today of carbon monoxide gas. Dr. Michael Margolis, coroner's physician, reported.

Dr. Margolis said Samuel W. Young of Coatesville, was overcome by the gas while climbing down a ladder in a cesspool at the home of Robert Osborne Sr., three miles east of here. He fell head first into about a foot of water. Robert Osborne Jr. went to the rescue and also was overcome.

U. S. Price Index Shows Decline As Meat Drops

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9 (P)—The Bureau of Labor Statistics wholesale price index declined .6 percent for the week ended Sept. 4, mainly because of "sharply lower prices for fresh meats, livestock and poultry."

BLS said the decreases more than offset higher prices for grains.

The index for the week was 167.4, compared with the 1926 average of 100. The index is 1.1 percent less than the record high for the index of 169.2 two weeks ago. But it still is 8.1 percent above the same week in 1947.

Red Sox Win 2d Straight From Yanks, 9-4

M'CARTHYMEN INCREASE LEAD TO 3 1/2 GAMES

Eight-Run Uprising in 3d Enables Boston to Win; Ellis Kinder Is Victor

BOSTON, Sept. 9 (AP)—Boston's pennant hungry Red Sox increased their American league lead to three and a half games over the runner-up Yankees today, thumping the New Yorkers 9-4, thanks to an eight-run spree in the third inning. It was the ninth successive Sox victory and their 24th in their last 27 games.

Bob Porterfield, starting Yankee pitcher, went to pieces in the third. He got the first batter on a pop up and couldn't retire another. He gave up three walks and three hits before he was removed for Tommy Byrne who was equally ineffective.

BYRNE WALKED Billy Goodman, the first batter to face him and was lifted for Ed Lopat after getting three balls and no strikes on the next hitter. Four more Sox hitters faced Lopat before the Yankees could retire the side.

Kinder went all the way for his eighth victory, started off as if the Sox were going to present it to the Yankees.

After George Stinewiss had been thrown out, Tommy Henrich poked a long hit to centerfield which trickled off the fingertips of the running Dom DiMaggio for a triple.

KINDER STRUCK out Hank Bauer but Johnny Pesky threw low to first after fielding Joe DiMaggio's bounce, Henrich scoring on the error.

In the second inning, Billy Hitchcock booted Bobby Brown's roller, and the Yankee third sacker reached first safely and scored on a triple down the right field foul line by the right handed batting Gus Niarhos.

The Yanks added a legitimate tally in the next frame on singles by Henrich and DiMaggio and Yogi Berra's fly out.

NIARHOS WAS EJECTED from the game by Umpire Ed Rempel in the sixth inning for tossing his glove in the air during an argument over a decision at the plate.

Johnny Pesky who had doubled with one out, came all the way home as Ted Williams pushed a slow grounder towards right field in an effort to outwit the extreme shift used by the Yankees.

The ball just glanced off the glove of shortstop Phil Rizzuto, who was playing on the right side of second, for a hit.

SNUFFY STINWEISS retrieved the ball and quickly threw home. The sliding Pesky beat the throw and crashed into Niarhos.

Williams legged it safely to second. The Yankees, led by the furious Niarhos, argued that Pesky pinned Niarhos to the ground, interfering with him.

The victory was the 11th for the Sox over the Yankees in 16 games. In eight games at Fenway park the Sox have defeated the Bombers seven times.

Boston University Adds Two Coaches
Boston, Sept. 9 (AP)—Two assistant football coaches were appointed at Boston university today.

Edward Swenson, 31, of Lynn, a 1940 alumnus of Boston College, has been named assistant line coach and Harry Botford of Winthrop, a BU tackle the past Fall, was selected assistant freshman coach.

Russ Peterson, assistant line coach a year ago, was named head coach of the frosh squad. Ed Donnelly, freshman mentor a year ago, becomes varsity backfield coach.

Leaves Early

Downcast Bob Porterfield, New York Yankee rookie pitcher, walks off the mound at Fenway park after blowing up in the third inning of yesterday's crucial game won by the Boston Red Sox, 9-4. Porterfield walked three men and gave up three hits in the third inning as Boston overcame a 3-0 deficit to go ahead. He was relieved by Tommy Byrne, who was equally ineffective.

Browns Sweep Doubleheader From Chicago

CHICAGO, Sept. 9 (AP)—The St. Louis Browns swept their first doubleheader of the season today, defeating the Chicago White Sox 5 to 2 and 2 to 1.

The Browns were trailing 2 to 1 going into the ninth inning and had gotten only three hits off Bill Wright before scoring three runs for the victory.

Floyd Baker's throwing error enabled Pellagrini to score St. Louis' first run in the ninth. Chicago picked up single runs in the fourth and eighth as Joe Ostrowski went the route on a field of eight hits.

CRUNCHES LOSE TO EAGLES IN THRILLER, 30-29

Jack Elicker's Foul in Last 11 Seconds Decides; Ludwig's Lags Triumph

Manager Jack Elicker dropped a foul goal through the basket, with only 11 seconds remaining in the game to give Elicker's Eagles a 30-29 conquest of Cannell's Crunches and a place in the quarter-finals of the Pottstown Outdoor Twilight Basketball tournament last night.

In another first round game played last night, Ludwig's Lads completely outclassed Leighton's Loopers, 51-19. Both games were played in the Pottstown High gymnasium because of last night's thunderstorm.

Ed Good, who is sponsoring the event, said last night he hopes to hold the quarter-final games on the outdoor court at Manatwamy park tonight.

Brower's Boys and Ricketts' Rockets, who won opening games Wednesday, will meet in the first game tonight at 6 o'clock while last night's winners will meet in the second game at 6:45 o'clock.

The first game was a one-sided affair with Ludwig's Lads jumping into an early lead and coasting the rest of the way to win. Danny Ludwig, team manager, led his team Elicker's Eagles. Cannell's Crunches.

U. S. Fishermen Lead International Match
WEDGEPORT, N. S., Sept. 9 (AP)—United States fishermen boated only a single tuna today, but retained their lead in the international match by a narrow margin.

The U. S. tuna was a 612-pounder taken by George D. Peeler of Catalina Island, Calif. It was the largest of the six bluefin caught today and earned the U. S. team an additional 200 honor bonus points, with 15 big points.

The Pottstown Cardinalettes' chances of making the trip to Portland, Ore., for the national softball playoffs became much brighter last night when it was revealed that the goal of $3500 needed to pay for the trip was in sight.

Officials of the local women's softball team said last night that approximately two-thirds of the amount has been collected and only $1000 more is needed.

In an effort to make up the difference, Cardinalette officials announced that they are offering a round trip by plane to the West coast to ten persons who would like to see the playoffs or visit anywhere on the coast. The round trip by plane for one person would cost $100, only one-third of the original price.

THE CARDINALETES are attempting to charter a plane from a Philadelphia firm to make the trip to Portland. The plane will seat 28 passengers and since the Cardinalettes are only taking 18 players there is room for 10 additional passengers.

A representative of the plane chartering firm will be in Pottstown today to discuss plans, for the trip with Earl Pottelger, manager of the local softball team.

Pottelger must know tonight if anyone wants to make the trip with the Cardinalettes. Anyone interested in flying to Portland is to contact Pottelger today by phoning Pottstown 2584.

IF THIS PLAN works, the Cardinalettes will leave Pottstown Saturday night and will arrive in Portland sometime Sunday. The softball playoffs open in Portland Monday, and the Cardinalettes will return home Sunday, Sept. 19.

Individual contributions to help pay for the trip will be appreciated, Cardinalette officials said last night. Anyone wishing to contribute is to contact Pottelger sometime today. Contributions received yesterday ranged from $5 to $50, Pottelger said.

Pottelger also said if the $3500 isn't collected and the Cardinalettes are unable to make the trip, all money will be refunded.

Browning Ross, only American to reach the finals of the Olympic 3000 meter steeplechase run, will compete for the Villanova cross-country team. He's a junior at the university.

In the same strenuous upper half with Falkenberg is Frankie Parker, the favorite, Jaroslav Drobný, the left-handed Czech with the great service, Vic Seixas, of Philadelphia, Tom Brown Jr. of San Francisco, Dick Gonzales of Los Angeles and Billy Sidwell of Australia.

Gridder Takes Up Weightlifting

Cards Face Eagles In Exhibition Game

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 9 (AP)—The champion Chicago Cardinals go after their third 1948 exhibition victory tomorrow night against the Philadelphia Eagles, Eastern division titlists of the National football league.

The Cards whitewashed the College All-Stars, 28-0, then smashed the Washington Redskins, 46-20. The Eagles, meantime, have split in two pre-season contests, whipping the Detroit Lions 37-35 but bowing to the Chicago Bears 24-23.

The champions won the title in the past year's playoff with the Eagles and the Philadelphia grid-ders are itching to square matters before an expected Municipal Stadium turnout of 60,000. The game is sponsored by Philadelphia Inquirer Charities, Inc.

Card Coach Jimmy Conzelmann has geared his defense to stop the Eagles' pile-driving backfield star, Steve Van Buren. But the Chicagoans also intend to watch Quarterback Tommy Thompson.

Priddy Visits Wife And New Daughter

CHICAGO, Sept. 9 (AP)—Gerry Priddy, St. Louis Browns' second baseman, left in the fifth inning of the second game of a double-header against the Chicago White Sox today to fly to his wife in St. Louis.

A few hours earlier Mrs. Priddy gave birth to their second child — a seven pound, three ounce daughter — in a hospital.

Gridders Outclass Reading Catholic in Hard Scrimmage
Coach Heeb Meyers and his assistants, Morrie Grigg and Bill McCabe, got their first good look at the Pottstown High grid team in action yesterday as the Trojans engaged in a lengthy two-hour scrimmage with Reading Catholic High on Franklin Field.

The Reading school is just starting football this year and its grid team was simply outclassed on the gridiron yesterday.

Meyers was satisfied with the scrimmage but said he couldn't say too much about the Trojan team because of the poor opposition.

PETE PERONI, Sam Green, Bobby Mauger, Mel Howard, Al Walton, Bob Stouch, Bob Dobry and other backs had little trouble in going for big gains against the Reading grid-ders.

Because of the weak Reading team, Meyers was able to insert every boy on the Pottstown team into the game with the exception of those suffering from slight injuries. Meyers thought the Trojans did well on defense but said he saw some mistakes which will have to be corrected.

Grigg and McCabe thought the Trojans learned a lot from the scrimmage and said the team will be in good condition for its first game after two more weeks of practice.

Boy Struck by Car Of Pottstown Driver Reported 'Improved'

An 11-year-old Trooper boy was reported "much improved" in the Montgomery hospital, Norristown, last night, where he was recuperating from injuries suffered Wednesday afternoon when he drove his bicycle into the side of an automobile driven by Noble K. Gerhart, 510 North Charlotte street, at the foot of Providence hill, Trooper.

George P. Bieber was admitted to the hospital at 4:15 p. m. Wednesday with a fracture of the left leg and multiple lacerations of the scalp.

He had left a school bus earlier that afternoon and had taken his bicycle from its parking place behind a service station.

Following a friend, he started to cross Ridge Pike, Route 422, from north to south, but his bicycle ran into the side of Gerhart's car, headed toward Pottstown.

The boy was thrown over the handlebars, and he struck his head against the right front window of the automobile.

Bieber was taken to the hospital in a Trappe Fire company ambulance.

State police of the Collegeville sub-station investigated.

Pennsylvania Soldier Escapes Death Penalty

COLUMBIA, S. C., Sept. 9 (AP)—Judge Robert Martin sentenced a 19-year-old Pennsylvania soldier to 10 years at hard labor for attempted rape and told him "only your youth saved your life."

The soldier is William J. Gillick, son of an Elizabethtown fireman. Trial testimony was that he waylaid a young school teacher on the University of South Carolina campus last month. Two men students heard screams and went to her rescue.

A guilty verdict on such a charge without a mercy recommendation carries the death penalty.

DO YOU KNOW WHAT THESE SYMBOLS STAND FOR?

NOWADAYS the quack-folk, or low-life crowd, is taken as a sign of great good luck. But in ancient religions and art it was the symbol of the equity and justice of the Supreme Being. Later it indicated those on whom God had showered good fortune, and finally it came to mean happy chance, or favorable circumstances.

The familiar Rexall sign is a modern symbol of superior and dependable pharmaceutical service. More than 10,000 independent, reliable drug stores in this country display the Rexall symbol. It means that all Rexall drugs are laboratory-tested for purity, potency and uniformity under the rigid Rexall system of controls. It means superior pharmaceutical skill in compounding them.
